

HaGG - Diary of Events February and March 2019

06 Feb: There's nothing trivial about Peter as he presents Trivial Pursuits - maybe even with some new, modern questions!

13 Feb: Put on your children's hats and get ready to Play Doh with David this evening. Loads of fun yet a bit controversial at the same time because the judge David picks is usually biased.

20 Feb: Tic Toc, the time's running out as we Pass The Bomb with Mike H.

27 Feb: Chris is hosting a new-to-us game called Contraband. Expect loads of furtive glances and downright untruths.

06 March: Mike S is presenting another of his ever-popular Discussion evenings. Let's hope tempers don't fray.

13 March: It's the Planning Meeting yet again where we plan out the next 2 month's activities.

20 March: Alexis from the Clinical Commissioning Group is coming to tell us about her work and how we, as individuals, or as a group could get involved if we wish.

27 March: Tonight will be about as unPC as you can get with Greg's new game Cards Against Humanity. Sounds like a real laugh with a few groans thrown in for good measure.

<https://hagg.org.uk>